Dear Hiring Team,

I am writing to express my interest in the Worship Pastor position. With over 20 years of experience in worship pastor roles, including serving as an interim worship leader for various denominations, as a volunteer musician on worship teams, starting prayer rooms and stewarding prayer sets, as well as a touring musician, I believe that I can bring experience and a unique perspective to this position. My most recent position was at Hope Community Church, before my family and I followed The Lord's leading to attend USM in Dallas.

During my time as a Worship Pastor at Hope Community Church, I honed my abilities in worship planning, team leadership, and walking alongside others as a pastor. My role involved overseeing the creative direction of services, mentoring worship team members, and fostering a collaborative community that encouraged artistic expression. During my tenure there, I oversaw all of the AVL aspects for a $5MM new sanctuary build. This also coincided with the peak of the Covid pandemic, during which time pre-recording services, holding outdoor services, and managing the livestream were all ongoing.

Over the last three years, while attending ministry school, I have remained active, as I have been leading prayer sets at UR in Dallas and serving as an interim worship leader in the DFW area.

I am a multi-instrumentalist and songwriter, and my experience in musical arrangement enables me to contribute effectively to a diverse and dynamic worship environment.

As an ordained pastor, I have both officiated weddings and ministered musically at many funerals. All of this to say that I hold a high value for celebrating others and being with them in their time of need.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to bring my skills and passion for worship to this community. Thank you for considering my application. I am eager to discuss how I can contribute to your team and am available at your earliest convenience.

Blessings,
Aaron Martin
